Program Planning Committee
Sarah Dennis and Jennifer Zuccaro

Accepted Sessions

- The Collections PBI: Interactive Data Visualization for Campus Outreach
- Linked Data in Library workflows
- Standards 101: An intro to using standards in serials & electronic resources work
- Applying Core Competencies for Learning and Career Development: Exploratory Perspectives
- Increasing the inclusivity of Transformative Agreements
- Metadata for everyone: Identifying metadata quality issues across cultures
- Using the ISSN Portal to check the status of your journal collections regarding digital preservation
- Decision Making in the Cataloging of Bound-with Books
- Recording and maintaining post-cancellation access
- Open the Gate! Ensuring easy authentication while mitigating cybersecurity risks
- Accessible History: Putting a Century of The Chronicles of Oklahoma Online
- Easier said than done; navigating the complexities of Open Access implementation

Combined Presentations
- Plugging the hole in resource management
- Documentation for Technical Services Staff: Downloading our brains for the greater good of the library

—-----------

- Benefits of KBART Automation for EBA/DDA: Experiences of OCLC Worldshare Collection Manager and Project MUSE
- Automation is Live! Partnerships using KBART Holdings Automation to streamline workflows

—-----------

- Usage Statistics Harvesting and Analysis: A Comparison of Available Products
- Unpacking OA Usage Reporting - what do stakeholders want?

Panel Session created from the following Proposals
- Adapting E-Resources Workflows: From the Lone Practitioner to a Team
- Growth Mindset and the Core Competencies: the Evolution of an Electronic Resources Librarian into a Cataloger
- Collection Management for Beginners what I did not learn in Library School